THE BATTLEFIELD - Battlefield High School - Ellerson, Virginia
PRODUCTION -

Binding - Good
Printing - Very good
Photography - Very good

CONTENT -

Cover - Design good.
Interior Layout - Sections well organized. Pages in Activities Section should be better centered for more balance.

Ads - Good

GENERAL COMMENT - On the whole, the book is nicely done.
The chief weakness is the bare appearance of several pages.

DEDICATED

TO THE

FACULTY OF 1947-48

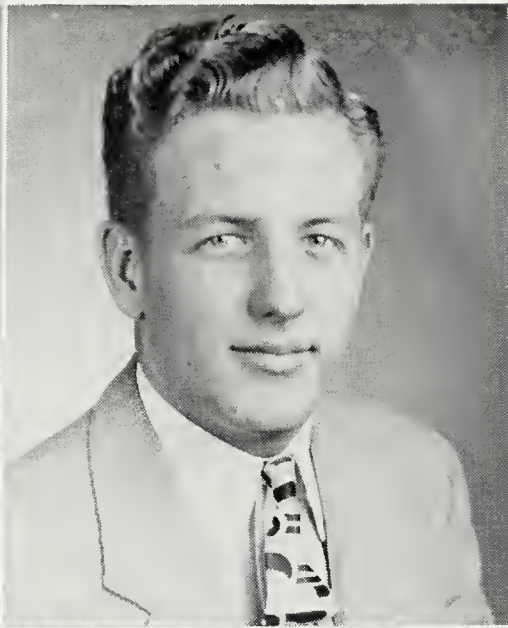

We, the Student Body, in appreciation for all the advice, inspiration, and assistance so cheerfully and helpfully rendered to us, during this year 1948, dedicate THE BATTLEFIELD to the faculty of Battlefield Park, who through observation, study, and experience have developed the art of understanding and encouraging those with whom they live. It is through contact with them that the youth in quest of knowledge is able to find his standard and the ideal by which he may be guided.

CLASS PROPHECY

As I was looking through the BATTLEFIELD of 1948 my eyes filled with tears and I longed to see my classmates once more. I began to wonder if they had all achieved the high goals in life that they once desired, so I decided to look them up.

From my fabulous salary as a teacher of physical education in Webber City I had managed to save enough to buy a Model T Ford which was not always so dependable, but I decided to swallow my pride and go to visit my classmates

As I approached a very small village I noticed a man standing by the road "thumbing" a ride, I slowed down to be sure not to pass a friend and to my surprise I recognized Milton. He had just wrecked his car and was trying to catch a ride home. He said that the wrecked car would be business for his welding company. I asked him about the class members and he said that Hillis still worked the farm across from his old home place.

For years we have been trying to catch Everette, for he got caught in a swift wind on the track and was lost. But now he may be found settled down in his rocking chair with his pipe and surrounded by his family.

As we passed through this small village I noticed a "shingle" hanging in front of a building. On it was written "E. Reese Dodson, D.D.S." I asked how he was getting along and Milton said "he is a painless dentist—the patients are the ones who suffer."

I stopped at the Vogue Fashion Shop and who should I run into but Bertha Wade, who is now manager of the third floor. By this time my old Ford was panting for water, gas and oil, so I coasted into the nearest filling station and who should come out to service my car but Raymond Bowles.

Just as I was stopping the car to put Milton out he remembered to ask about my brother, Rudolph. I replied that he had joined the Navy to see the world. Milton thanked me for the ride and I continued on my way. It was lunch time, so I stopped by a small lunchroom. I recognized the hostess as being Virginia Hughes. She said Annie Mae was dietitian there and that they both had gotten their start in the Home Economics Classes at Battlefield Park.

As Virginia served my lunch I asked about Gloria, Mildred, Marlene and Kathleen.

Gloria was an old maid school teacher—successful in teaching if not in matrimony.

Mildred was a very successful homemaker and joint owner of a little white cottage in the country.

Marlene—a very efficient secretary had eloped with her boss. Then Virginia said, "surely you have heard about Kathleen?" When I admitted that I had not she said, "why she is Margaret Truman's accompanist."

As I was leaving the lunch room who should I walk into but Linwood, who is now a lawyer. I asked about Mary Ann. He told me she was married and raising a family.

Having completed my day's journey, I returned to my position as teacher in Webber City, feeling as though the day had been well spent and that the Class of 1948 was living up to its class motto—"Let us be seen by our deeds."

CLASS HISTORY

We, the Seniors of nineteen hundred and forty-eight, entered the first grade in 1937, Miss Bagby was our teacher. There were about thirty-five of us in the grade. We recall only a few things we had, but we must have passed because the next year we were in the second grade.

In grade two we advanced in our studies. Miss Isbell started us in our Locker writing book. We took part in many activities and advanced to grade three.

Miss Pugh was our third grade teacher. The outstanding event was our participation in the play called "Shortninbread." We all expected a contract from Hollywood after that. We were unfortunate in that we lost some of our group that year.

In grade four we added Gloria to our class. The class changed study habits often that year because we had seven different teachers. Over many a twist and turn we came out successful.

In grade five we had a hard time getting a start, although Mrs. Luck came to our aid. She made us draw many things as we were advancing in our studies. We caused her much trouble, but we had fun.

Mrs. Redd was ready for us in grade six. We had fun giving plays and studying about other countries from our geography books. She made us study but we didn't mind, because we were getting used to it now. After a summer's vacation we were ready for grade seven.

Miss Owen taught us in grade seven. In this grade, Brannon, Hughes and Bosher joined our class. Miss Owen taught us many rules in English, so when we entered high school we would know how to act as ladies and gentlemen. The class had a lot of fun having parties and playing games.

Miss Ellis was our home room teacher and we were very pleased, because she was one of us and she introduced us into high school. Miss Bowles taught us science but we are afraid Mrs. Stevenson had her hands full in Algebra class.

In our sophomore year, Miss Woodward, our head teacher taught us much about ancient history. We were very proud of our school playing John Marshall at Hotchkiss Field, and made a gay occasion of it by going on a hayride and then going to a show. We were very happy to welcome Margery and Rudolph Gunn to our class.

Mr. Youell brought us great joy as we entered our junior year. There was a disturbance about our school causing us to lose several students but we were glad to welcome Ed Reese Dodson to our class. We enjoyed "Our Junior-Senior Party."

We are now dignified seniors about to graduate into a world filled with more than its share of chaos and responsibilities, to be learned primarily by members of our generation.

In spite of what might be considered a rather uncertain and somewhat difficult future, graduation to us is a momentous and happy occasion. We have been more than fortunate in school associations for we have developed life-long friendship among our classmates and benefited immensely by the capable instruction and guidance of the members of the faculty.

We would like to take this opportunity to express our heartfelt appreciation to Mrs. Eubank, who, among others, has done so much to help us develop intellectually and socially into the types of ladies and gentlemen we wish to be. We also, at this time, wish to express our pleasure in having Mary Ann Harding and Dennis Heath as members of our class; they returned to join our class this past year, and now share with us this joyous occasion. Being thus united in mind and purpose to succeed we had only to heed the wisdom of our motto, "Let Us Be Seen By Our Deeds."

RAYMOND ALLEN BOWLES

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Class of 1948, in eighteen individual and distinct parts, being about to pass out of this sphere of education, in full possession of a crammed mind, well-trained memory and almost superhuman understanding, do make and publish this, our last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all former wills or promises by us at any time heretofore made, or may have, carelessly spoken, one to the other, as the thoughtless wish of an idle hour.

SECTION I

ARTICLE 1—We give and bequeath to our beloved principal, Mr. B. V. Aylor, our sincere affection, our deepest reverence, our heartiest gratitude, and the whole unlimited wealth of our eternal memory. In an attempt at partial payments for all that he has done for us during the last few years at Battlefield Park High School, we make over to him, here and now, a heavy mortgage on our future in the Great Unknown beyond.

ARTICLE 2—To our class room teacher, Mrs. Eubank, we leave the profound admiration and ever-enduring friendship of the class of 1948.

ARTICLE 3—To Mr. Reynolds we leave a brighter and more promising future.

ARTICLE 4—To Mrs. Sweet we leave our ability to make slip covers for chairs.

ARTICLE 4—To Mrs. Allen we leave a radiator for the library that will warm the marrow in her bones.

ARTICLE 6—To Miss Griffith we leave a new lease on life.

ARTICLE 7—To Mrs. Mattox we leave a grim determination to look on the brighter side of things.

SECTION II

ARTICLE 1—To the Junior Class we leave our senior privileges that we have never fully enjoyed. We wish you luck.

ARTICLE 2—To the Sophomore Class we leave our desire to be ladies and gentlemen.

ARTICLE 3—To the Freshman Class we leave any stubs of pencils, erasers or scraps of paper that we may inadvertently leave behind us in the excitement and haste of gathering up our cherished treasures for the last time.

SECTION III

ARTICLE 1—To Johnny, Dennis leaves a helicopter in order that he may take off without the worry of stop signs or on-coming ears.

ARTICLE 2—To Bobby McFarlane, Rudolph leaves his comic magazines.

ARTICLES 3—To Evelyn, Marlene leaves troubles as Student Council Secretary.

ARTICLE 4—To Harold, Bertha leaves a part of her sarcasm.

ARTICLE 5—To Richard, Hillis leaves a few of his excuses to get out of class.

ARTICLE 6—To Elmore, Linwood leaves his charm with the ladies.

ARTICLE 7—To Audrey, Sonny leaves all of his spare time.

ARTICLE 8—To Kathleen, Annie Mae leaves her gift of gab.

ARTICLE 9—To Dan, Milton leaves his methods of playing football.

ARTICLE 10—To Freddie, Ed Reese leaves his able leadership.

ARTICLE 11—To Shirley, Raymond leaves his willingness to shirk work.

ARTICLE 12—To Elizabeth, Gloria leaves her love of books.

ARTICLE 13—To Peggy, Everette leaves a permanent seat in the senior room, but, alas, he must leave.

ARTICLE 14—To Venie, Mary Ann leaves a part of her mathematical brain. The Medical College of Virginia claims the rest.

ARTICLE 15—To Lilly, Virginia leaves her freedom from worry.

ARTICLE 16—To Pearl, Kathleen leaves her ability to master any subject.

ARTICLE 17—To Betty, Mildred regrets she is unable to leave anything—she is taking it all with her.

ARTICLE 18—To Bobby Boggs, Margery leaves her obesity and the good disposition that goes with it.

We make, constitute, and appoint C. B. Mattox, Jr., to be our sole executor of this our last Will and Testament. In witness whereof, we have hereunto subscribed our names and affixed our seal this 5th day of June, 1948.
